HOME DEVELOPMENT MUTUAL FUND

Attention: MR. WILMER B. LIRAZAN
Department Manager III

ATTY. GILBERT FRANCIS A. UY III
Head, Bacolod Housing Business Center

Gentlemen:

This refers to your request on behalf of Home Development Mutual Fund (the "Fund") for: (1) reconsideration of Memorandum No. 18-2015 dated December 16, 2015 issued by then Commissioner Kim S. Jacinto-Henares, RE: "Home Development Mutual Fund (Pag-IBIG Fund) request for exemption from Creditable Withholding Tax (CWT) on the sale of Pag-Ibig Fund acquired properties in Panay Island and for refund of all payments made from time of approval of RMC No. 43-2011;" and (2) refund of all the payments it made from the time of the approval of Revenue Memorandum Circular ("RMC") No. 43-2011 (collectively, the "Request").

Background

1. The Fund requested for tax exemption from payment of creditable withholding tax ("CWT")/capital gains tax ("CGT") on the sale of its acquired real properties where title is already consolidated in the name of the Fund as provided under Section 19 of Republic Act No. 9679 as circularized by RMC No. 43-2011[1] and RMC No. 6-2012[2].

2. On December 16, 2015, Commissioner Kim S. Jacinto-Henares, the then Commissioner ("CIR") of the Bureau of Internal Revenue ("Bureau") issued Memorandum No. 18-2015 ("Memorandum") wherein it ruled that the sale of real properties of defaulting borrowers-members that were foreclosed by the Fund is subject to: (a) CGT imposed under Sections 24 (D) (1) and 27 (D) (5) in relation to Section 57 of the National Internal Revenue Code of 1997, as amended ("Tax Code") and Revenue Regulations ("RR") No. 2-98, as amended, if such property is a capital asset, or CWT imposed under Section 57 of the Tax Code and RR No. 2-1998, as amended, if the same is an ordinary asset; (b) value added tax ("VAT") imposed under Section 106 of the Tax Code and RR No. 16-2005, if the property is an ordinary asset; and (c) documentary stamp tax ("DST") imposed under Section 196 of the Tax Code, to wit:

> "It is well to note that while it is the Pag-IBIG Fund which sells the real property in a public auction to enforce payment of unpaid loans from its borrowers-members, the CGT is imposed upon capital gains presumed to have been realized by the owner of the property from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of the real property. In short, the PAGIBIG Fund, in selling the foreclosed real properties during public auctions, only acts as the agent of the borrowers-members, and, thus, is the one obligated to ensure collection and payment of the taxes due on the sale thereof. Hence, the Pag-IBIG Fund cannot invoke its tax exemption under Section 19 of RA 9679 to withhold and collect the taxes due on the sale of its acquired real properties during public auctions..."

3. In relation to the Memorandum, on April 2, 2019, Atty. Gilbert Francis A. Uy III, Head of the Fund, requested for reconsideration and clarified that the subject foreclosed real properties were already acquired assets of the Fund ("Acquired Properties"). As such, in selling these Acquired Properties, the Fund was not acting as agent of the borrower-members, but as already the owner of the same. Also, considering that the foreclosure proceeding has long been completed and the redemption period has already expired, the Fund is the absolute owner of the properties. Further, the Fund was selling the Acquired Properties not to enforce the payment from its member-borrower but as an owner of the same.

In reply, please be informed that the Fund is a government-owned and controlled corporation ("GOCC") created under Republic Act ("RA") No. 9679,[3] which is involved in, among others, extending housing loans to Fund members.[4]

Having this in regard, in the event of non-payment by a borrower-member of its obligations, the Fund is granted a right to foreclose the real properties of such defaulting borrower-mortgagor, auction the same publicly, and apply the proceeds to the debt of the same, to wit:

Upon consolidation of title, the respective tax declarations covering th subject properties shall also be consolidated in the name of the Fund.[7]

When it come to payment of taxes, the Fund should be guided by Section I (G) of the Circular and Section 2 of RR No. 09-2012:[8]

Based on the fo e-cited provisions, the buyer of the real property foreclosed, in case of non-redemption of pr perties sold during involuntary sales (i.e., foreclosure of mortgaged properties), who is de med to have withheld the CGT or CWT due from the sale, shall file the CGT return and remit the CGT to the Bureau within thirty (30) days from the expiration of the applicable statutory r demption period. If the subject property is an ordinary asset, the buyer shall file the CWT re urn and remit the CWT within ten (10) days following the end of the month after expiratio of the applicable statutory redemption period.

If the subject p roperty sold is under the circumstances which warrant the imposition of VAT, the same must be paid to the BIR by the VAT-registered borrower-mortgagor on or before the 20th day o 25th day, whichever is applicable, of the month following the month when the right of redc mption prescribes.

Moreover, the DST return shall be filed and paid to the BIR within five (5) days after the close of the montl after the lapse of the applicable redemption period.

Please note th at the CGT/CWT/VAT and DST shall be based on the higher of the consideration (bid p rice of the highest bidder) or the fair market value or zonal value as determined in accor dance with Section 6 (E) of the Tax Code.

This Office is of the opinion that this position is not in conflict with Section 19 of RA No. 9679, as implemented by Section 11 of its implementing rules and regulations ("IRR"), which provides that he Fund and all its assets and properties are exempt from any tax, assessment, fee, charg or customs or import duty, to wit:

"SECTION 19. Exemption from Tax, Legal Process and Lien. — All laws to the contrary notwit standing, the Fund and all its assets and properties, all contributions collected and a l accruals thereto and income or investment earnings therefrom, as well as all supp ies equipment, papers or documents shall be exempt from any tax, assessment, fee, charge, or customs or import duty; and all benefit payments made by the Pag-IBIG F nd shall likewise be exempt from all kinds of taxes, fees or charges, and shall not be liable to attachments, garnishments, levy or seizure by or under any legal or equitab e process whatsoever, either before or after receipt by the person or persons entitled thereto, except to pay any debt of the member to the Fund. No tax measure of wh tever nature enacted shall apply to the Fund, unless it expressly revokes the decl ared policy of the State in Section 2 hereof granting tax exemption to the Fund. Any tax assessment against the Fund shall be null and void." (Underscoring s pplied)

Following the ited Circular and RR No. 9-2012, and to ensure collection and payment of taxes due on the sale, the Fund, which is the buyer (assuming that it was the highest bidder), and deemed to have withheld the taxes due from the sale, must file the necessary return and remit the taxes to the Bureau within the prescribed period.

Clearly, with he said procedure, the Fund merely acts as an agent of the borrowers-mortgagors. Thus, t e annot invoke its tax exemption under Section 19 of RA No. 9679 in order not to withh ld and collect the taxes due on the Sale of the Foreclosed Properties during public auctions. It must be emphasized that the Fund is not the entity liable to pay tax, but it is requir d t withhold and remit to the Bureau the withheld taxes relating to the sale of the Foreclos d Properties.

2. Sale of Acquired Properties

Sale of Acqui ed Properties to a third party via a public auction is governed by Fund Circular No. 428.[3]

Pursuant to S ct on 19 of RA No. 9679 as circularized by RMC No. 43-2011 and RMC No. 6-2012, the Fund, and its assets and properties, including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Acquired Properties, are exempt from any tax, assessment, fee, charge, or customs or import duty, to wit

> "SECTION 19. Exemption from Tax, Legal Process and Lien. — All laws to the contrary notwithstanding, the Fund and all its assets and properties, all contributions collected and all accruals thereto and income or investment earnings therefrom, as well as all supplies, equipment, papers or documents shall be exempt from any tax, assessment, fee, charge, or customs or import duty; and all benefit payments made by the Pag-IBIG Fund shall likewise be exempt from all kinds of taxes, fees or charges, and shall not be liable to attachments, garnishments, levy or seizure by or under any legal or equitable process whatsoever, either before or after receipt by the person or persons entitled thereto, except to pay any debt of the member to the Fund. No tax measure of whatever nature enacted shall apply to the Fund, unless it expressly revokes the declared policy of the State in Section 2 hereof granting tax exemption to the Fund. Any tax assessment against the Fund shall be null and void."
> (Underscoring supplied)

In view of the foregoing, this Office hereby confirms that the sale by the Fund of the Acquired Properties are exempt from any tax, assessment, fee, or charges without prejudice to the existing laws, rules and regulations. Take note however, that the DST relating to such sale shall be paid by the third-party buyer pursuant to Section 173 of the Tax Code.

Moreover, the third-party buyer of the Acquired Properties shall be responsible for the transfer of the relevant title in his favor and shall shoulder the corresponding transfer costs, and other related expenses pursuant to Section VI (3.2) of Circular No. 428, to wit:

With regard to th[illegible] request for refund of all the payments it made from the time of the approval of RMC N[illegible]. 43-2011, please note that Sections 204 (C) and 229 of the Tax Code provides that no cre[illegible]lit [illegible]r refund of taxes or penalties shall be allowed unless the taxpayer files in writing with [illegible]he Commissioner a claim for credit or refund within two (2) years after the payment of the t[illegible]x [illegible]r penalty, to wit:

In any case, no [illegible]su[illegible]ch suit or proceeding shall be filed after the expiration of two (2) years from the [illegible]da[illegible]te of payment of the tax or penalty regardless of any supervening cause that may [illegible]ar[illegible]ise after payment ..." (Underscoring supplied)

Section 204 ap[illegible]plies to administrative claims for refund, while Section 229 to judicial claims for refund. It [illegible]pea[illegible]rs stressing that in an administrative claim for refund, the same shall be filed with the C[illegible]IR within the prescribed period and supported by source documents required under exis[illegible]ting laws and rules and regulations. Also, it is essential that an administrative claim be filed as a condition precedent in order for a judicial claim for refund to prosper.[10]

Actions for tax refund or credit are in the nature of a claim for exemption. As such, the law is not only con[illegible]strued in strictissimi juris against the taxpayer, the pieces of evidence presented entitling a [illegible]taxpayer to an exemption must also be strictissimi scrutinized and duly proven. The burden is on the taxpayer to show that he has strictly complied with the conditions for the grant of the tax refund or credit. Since taxes are the lifeblood of the government, tax laws must be faithfully and strictly implemented. They are not intended to be liberally construed.[11]

Accordingly, in the absence of proof that the Fund has filed with the CIR a claim for tax credit or refund within the two (2) year period as prescribed by law, the taxes it had paid can no longer be the subject of a refund or credit.[12]

Please be guided accordingly.

Very truly yours.
