COLEGIO DE SAN JUAN SAMAR, INC.
Brgy. Libertad, Lavezares, Northern Samar

Attention: EUFEMIA A. JATAP, Ph.D.
President

Madam:

This refers to your letter dated April 30, 2018 applying on behalf of COLEGIO DE SAN JUAN SAMAR, INC. for tax exemption certificate being enjoyed by non-stock, non-profit corporation or association under Section 30 (H) of the National Internal Revenue Code (NIRC) of 1997, as amended.

It is represented that COLEGIO DE SAN JUAN SAMAR, INC. with BIR Taxpayer's Identification No. (TIN) is a non-stock, non-profit association duly organized and existing under the laws of the Republic of the Philippines; that it is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) under Company Registration No. ;

In reply, please be informed that Section 30 of the National Internal Revenue Code of 1997, as amended, enumerates the non-stock and/or non-profit corporations/associations/ organizations that are exempt from income tax in respect to income received by them as such. Section 30 (H) of the National Internal Revenue Code of 1997, as amended, provides, viz:

> "Sec. 30. Exempt from Tax on Corporations. - The following organizations shall not be taxed under this Title in respect to income received by them as such:
>
> xxx xxx xxx
>
> (H) A nonstock and nonprofit educational institution;"
> xxx xxx xxx"

"Non-stock" means "no part of its income is distributable as dividends to its members, trustees, or officers" and that any profit "obtained as an incident to its operations shall, whenever necessary or proper, be used for the furtherance of the purpose or purposes for which the corporation was organized".[1] "Non-profit" means that "no net income or asset accrues to or benefits any member or specific person, with all the net income or asset devoted to the institution's purposes and all its activities conducted not for profit".[2]

Revenue Memorandum Circular (RMC) No. 51-2014 has clarified that in order for an entity to qualify as a non-stock and/or non-profit corporation/association/organization exempt from income tax under Section 30 of the NIRC of 1997, as amended, its earnings or assets shall not inure to the benefit of any of its trustees, organizers, officers, members or any specific person. The following are considered "inurements" of such nature:

[1] Section 87, Corporation Code

SH- 0234-2020
MAY 19 2020

1. The payment of compensation, salaries, or honorarium to its trustees or organizers; xxx.

In the submitted documents of COLEGIO DE SAN JUAN SAMAR, INC., it was disclosed that the members of the Board of Trustees are entitled to honorarium. Treasurer's Certification submitted by COLEGIO DE SAN JUAN SAMAR, INC. states that:

> "That the Board of Trustees received the following Php. 2,000.00 per month as Honorarium or Php 120,000.00 annual fee as Officers of Colegio de San Juan Samar, Inc."

The giving of honorarium to the members of the Board of Trustees is considered a distribution of the equity (including the net income) of COLEGIO DE SAN JUAN SAMAR, INC. This is a form of private inurement which the law prohibits in the organization and operation of a non-stock, non-profit corporation. This act violates the requirement that no part of the net income or assets of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any individual or specific person. Thus, COLEGIO DE SAN JUAN SAMAR, INC. cannot be qualified as a non-stock, non-profit corporation under Section 30 (H) of the National Internal Revenue Code of 1997, as amended.

Please bear in mind that, "being a non-stock and/or non-profit corporation does not, by this reason alone, completely exempt an institution from tax."[3] Thus, "statutes granting tax exemptions are construed strictissimi juris against the taxpayer and liberally in favor of the taxing authority. A claim of tax exemption must be clearly shown and based on language in law too plain to be mistaken. Otherwise stated, taxation is the rule, exemption is the exception. The burden of proof rests upon the party claiming the exemption to prove that it is in fact covered by the exemption so claimed."[4] (BIR Ruling No. 466-2014 dated November 19, 2014)

In view of the foregoing, the request of COLEGIO DE SAN JUAN SAMAR, INC. to be exempted from income tax on its income as a Section 30 (H) corporation is hereby denied as it failed to prove that it is a non-profit corporation. Therefore, COLEGIO DE SAN JUAN SAMAR, INC. shall be treated as an ordinary corporation subject to thirty percent (30%) income tax rate pursuant to Section 27 (A) and other internal revenue taxes imposed by the National Internal Revenue Code of 1997, as amended.

Please be guided accordingly

Very truly yours,

CAESAR R. DULAY
Commissioner of Internal Revenue
