BIR RULING NO. 383-16

RA 7279; BIR Ruling No. 005-11

Napico Homeowners Association X-I, Inc.
Lot 5 Blk. 3 Lanzones Ext., Napico, Manggahan
Pasig City

Attention: AAA

Gentlemen :

This refers to your letter dated May 17, 2016 requesting exemption from the payment of taxes relative to the transfer of title of land from Napico Homeowners Association X-I, Inc. in favor of its qualified member-beneficiaries [1] pursuant to Republic Act 7279 otherwise known as the "Urban Development and Housing Act of 1992."

It is represented that Napico Homeowners Association X-I, Inc., with Taxpayer's Identification No. 000-000-000-000, is the registered owner of a parcel of land, with an area of 16,070 square meters, covered by Transfer Certificate of Title No. PT-123315 issued by the Registry of Deeds for the City of Pasig; that the aforesaid lot was acquired through a loan under the Community Mortgage Program (CMP), with the National Housing Authority (NHA) as Originator, per Certification dated November 20, 2013 issued by the Social Housing Finance Corporation (SHFC); that based on the same Certification, the CMP project was taken-out/paid on August 30, 2004 in the loan amount of Php_____; and that Napico Homeowners Association X-I, Inc., is now in the process of subdividing the subject parcel of land to its member-beneficiaries.

In reply, please be informed that the transfer of the subdivided lots in favor of the individual members-beneficiaries of the Association is not subject to either the capital gains tax (CGT) imposed under Section 27 (D) (5) of the Tax Code of 1997, as amended, or the creditable withholding tax (CWT) imposed under Revenue Regulations (RR) No. 2-98, as amended, considering that said transfer is being made without any monetary consideration. The transfer is only a formality to finally effect the transfer of the subject property to its member-beneficiaries who actually bought the same from the former owner through the Association. In other words, the association is merely transferring the ownership of the property to its member-beneficiaries who actually own the same.

Furthermore, the said transfer is not subject to the donor's tax imposed under Section 99 of the Tax Code of 1997, since there is no donative intent on the part of the Association to donate the property to its members-beneficiaries, considering that it could not donate property the ownership of which already belongs to the members-beneficiaries themselves.

It is noted that under Section 196 of the Tax Code of 1997, the deeds or documents subject to the documentary stamp tax (DST) imposed therein are those where the realty sold are granted, assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed to a purchaser or purchasers or to any other person or persons designated by such purchaser or purchasers, thereby excluding from its purview the instant case considering that the supposed purchasers are actually the owners thereof. Besides, no consideration is involved in said transaction upon which the tax imposed could be based. Accordingly, the transfer of the subdivided lots in favor of the beneficiaries is not subject to DST under Section 196 of the Tax Code of 1997. However, the notarial acknowledgment to the deed of conveyance is subject to the documentary stamp tax of P15.00 pursuant to Section 188 of the Tax Code of 1997.

It is, however, understood that the Certificate Authorizing Registration (CAR) shall only be issued after the submission of the requirements provided under RMO 15-2003 and after it is established upon proper verification by the Revenue District Officer (RDO) concerned that, considering the rules on valuation on real property, the actual selling price per sale transaction in this case does not exceed P450,000.00 [2] for house and lot and P180,000.00 for lot only for each qualified beneficiaries. (BIR Ruling No. 005-11 dated January 19, 2011)

This ruling is being issued on the basis of the foregoing facts as represented. However, if upon investigation, it will be disclosed that the facts are different, then this ruling shall be considered null and void.

Very truly yours,

(SGD.) CAESAR R. DULAY
Commissioner of Internal Revenue
